DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a software consulting company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a Senior Integration Consultant. The petition requests classification of the beneficiary as a Member of the Professions Holding an Advanced Degree or an Alien of Exceptional Ability pursuant to section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2).¹ The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary possessed the minimum level of education required for the position and denied the petition accordingly.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant petition, the alien filed a Form I-485, Application to Adjust Status, receipt number [REDACTED] which was approved on September 2, 2010. Because the alien has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot based on the alien's adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.

¹ Section 203(b) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b) states in pertinent part that:

(2) Aliens Who Are Members of the Professions Holding Advanced Degrees or Aliens of Exceptional Ability. --

(A) In General. -- Visas shall be made available . . . to qualified immigrants who are members of the professions holding advanced degrees or their equivalent or who because of their exceptional ability in the sciences, arts, or business, will substantially benefit prospectively the national economy, cultural or educational interests, or welfare of the United States, and whose services in the sciences, arts, professions, or business are sought by an employer in the United States.
